Dear Bob,

I wanted to express my appreciation for the tremendous work you performed for Prince of Peace, South Carolina. Throughout our appeal for an increased offertory you carried a sincere burden for our desires and needs. I believe that bringing in professional counsel such as your self is the best investment a church can make when faced with the seldom performed but often needed chore of conducting a stewardship appeal.

The wonderful thing about working with your ministry is that you go beyond the normal service of providing counsel that so many others offer. You actually do all of the work of conducting the appeal after the decisions have been made during the initial counseling phase.

We are deeply indebted to you for both your leadership in this endeavor and your hard work in carrying out the work necessary to have a successful appeal.

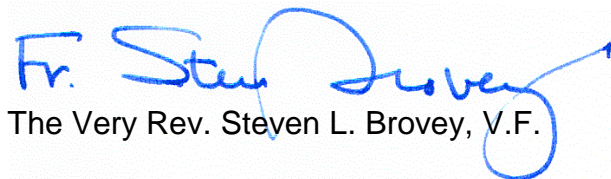

As I explained to our parishioners, it is the weekly offertory collection that allows us to continue the important catechetical and spiritual programs we do as a Parish day in and day out. To discuss finances or to ask for money is always difficult but your program allowed me to do just that in a most professional and painless way.

Your faith based program was overwhelmingly received by our parishioners and it brought about a $240,000.00 blessing to our parish, a 15-fold return on your fee.

I would encourage any size church with a need to retire a present burden of debt or some other need for a financial program to consider Stewardship Solutions as the right tool for the task.

I pray God's best for your ministry in the years to come.

Grace and peace,

The Very Rev. Steven L. Brovey, V.F.
